I. How we started Rethinking Economics

II. What we do to Rethink Economics

We campaign for a more diverse, accessible and critical economics education

Community Organising

Curriculum Writing

Access to economics education

III. What can academics do?

1. Inspire us

2. Teach more than your own students

3. Provide professional reconnaissance

4. Publicise your existence

A world map with several blue location pins placed across various continents, including North America, Europe, and South America. The pins are concentrated in the United States, Europe, and Brazil. The map is overlaid with text.
